TO PASS ON PEARY'S RECORDS

BOARD NAMED BY NATIONAL GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY.

It Is Compose ! of Hen y Gannett, Rear Admira Colby M. Chester and O. H. Tittman-Dr. Cook's Rival Claim to the Pole Will Not Be Considered.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 .- Henry Gannett, chairman of the United States Geo-Board; Rear Admiral Colby M. ster, U.S. N., formerly superintendent he Naval Observatory, and O. H. Tittuperintendent of the United States and Geodetic Survey, will compose the membership of the committee of the National Geographical Society which will russ on the records and proofs submitted by Robert E. Peary to substantiate his claim that he reached the north pole on April 6, 1909. At a meeting of the board of managers of the National Geographical v to-day the records and observanons furnished by Commander Peary were presented, and Mr. Gennett, who had previously been appointed chairman of the committee on polar research, named Admiral Chester and Mr. Tittmann as the other members of the committee to determine Commander Peary's claims. It was the desire of the National Geographical Society, of which Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the United States Weather Moore chief of the United States Weather Bureau, is president, that Dr. Frederick Cook and Commander Peary should submit their records and proofs to the society simultaneously. Request that this be done was sent by the society to Commander Peary and Dr. Cook.

When Dr. Cook was in Washington recently he said to newspaper men, and it was so announced, that he had promised to submit his data to the University of Comenhagen, but that he would present it.

to submit his data to the University of Copenhagen, but that he would present it synchronously to an American scientific society. Subsequently, according to the understanding here, Dr. Cook left it to the determination of the University of Copenhagen whether his data should be passed on exclusively by the university or should be presented also to a board of experts in the United States. To-day the National Geographical Society received this cable message from Rector Torp of the Copenhagen University in response to the society's request that the university waive its claim to an original examination of Dr. Cook's records:

of Dr. Cook's records:
"University regrets not able comply with your request."

In view of this attitude of the University In view of this attitude of the University of Copenhagen the only question to be determined by the committee of the National Geographical Society is whether Commander Peary reached the pole in April of this year. The matter of Dr. Cook's claim to have discovered the pole in April. 1908, will not be considered by the Geographical Society's committee.

graphical Society's committee.

The three men who will pass on Commander Peary's claim are well known mander Peary's claim are well known in the scientific world. Chairman Gannett, who has been head of the United States Geographic Board since 1882, is the author of several technical scientific works. He was one of the founders of the National Geographical Society and is its vice-president. Admiral Chester was graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1863 and has held many important naval assignments at sea and ashore. He had an opportunity of displaying his scientific knowledge as chief of the naval hydrographic division and as superintendent of the Naval Observatory. Mr. Tittmann, who was a founder of the National Geographical Society, was appointed superintendent of the coast and geodetic survey in 1900 and is a memand geodetic survey in 1900 and is a member of the Alaska Boundary Commission.
The action of Commander Peary in submitting his records to the National Geographic Society was the outcome of an effort of the American Museum of Natural History in New York, the Ameri Natural History in New York, the American Geographical Society and the National Geographical Society to have Prof. Ira Remsen as president of the National Academy of Sciences appoint a commission to pass on the records of Peary and Cook. Dr. Remsen replied, however, that as he could not appoint such a commission to the council of the and Cook. Dr. Remsen replied, however, that as he could not appoint such a commission until authorized by the council of the academy, which would not meet until toward the end of November, and unless requested to do so by both Peary and Cook, he was unable to comply with the joint suggestion submitted to him.

Commander Peary expressed a willingness to present his data to such a commission, but Dr. Cook declared that his data would be submitted to the University of Copenhagen, and the proposition made to Dr. Remsen fell through. The National Geographical Society thereupon requested Peary and Cook to submit their cases to its own committee. Peary complied, but the University of Copenhagen declined to waive its priod claim to the examination of Dr. Cook's record.

WON'T GIVE UP CLAIM ON COOK.

University of Copenhagen Declines to Comply With American Request. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 20 .- in reply to the request of the American Geographical Society that the Copenhagen University should renounce its prior claim to examine the records of Dr. Cook, the Danish body to-day sent the following reply: "We are sorry that the university is was arrested early last night at Bayard and Elizabeth streets. The old man's body was a visitor in Toledo to-day, was informed of the action of Copenhagen University in refusing to waive its claims to review his north pole records before any other scientific society had seen them. "I could not think of asking the University of Copenhagen to waive its claims to examine the records of my trip to the pole." said Dr. Cook. "I had given my promise to submit all my proofs to the Danish school of learning, and it would be a breach of faith on my part not to do so now.

"It will make no difference to the scientific world whether the University of Copenhagen or the National Geographical Society first sees the records. They will be open to the world as soon as the university gets through with them and the National Geographical Society may examine them if the members desire. unable to comply with your request.

t will make no difference to the scific world whether the University of enhagen or the National Geographical ety first sees the records. They be open to the world as soon as the ersity gets through with them and National Geographical Society may mine them if the members desire.
geographic society in the country have the same privilege.
dy lecture course will be concluded linneapolis on Monday night. After I will go East to prepare the records, ink the proofs will be ready for exlation in two months and possibly ion in two months and possibly that time. They will consist of mical, meteorological and geogal data. The instruments with made the observations, however, at Etah and will not be in America

HITET RIDING TO HOUNDS.

Howard N. Potter and Thomas Crimmins ter Bad Falls in Westchester.

PLAINS, Oct. 20.-Two members Westchester County Hunt Club, as a clubhouse between White nd Purchase, were injured while the hounds yesterday afterwas the weekly hunt of the

The run covered ten miles and the swere on their return to the club-men the accident happened.

The resides in North street, White was riding rapidly, and while the jump over a stone fence his he jump over a stone fence his hie a misstep and fell, throwing Three of his ribs were broken, was killed. Thomas Crimmins ing at a fast clip when his horse and took a header on the turf. mins struck on his right shoulder several years a writer on THE SUN, was buried to-day in Hamilton College Cemetery, Clinton, N. Y. The tuneral services were held in the chapel of Hamilton College. The Rev. M. Woolsey Stryker, president of Hamilton, was the officiating clergyman. The interment was in the Root plot. The pallbearers were D. De W. Smythe, George M. Weaver, Jr., H. J. Cookenham, Prof. A. A. Moore of Princeton University, Samuel Hopkins Adams and William A. Willis. Senator Root, Walstein Root's uncle, attended the funeral. tter was able to go to his home in mobile. He will be laid up for it, however. Mr. Crimmins spent at the club and returned to

MURDER WHEN AUTOS KILL. B. F. BARNES DIES SUDDENLY Indictments of Two Chauffeurs Sought

O'Hanlon for murder in the first degree.

boy, on March 27 last.

Miss Bott and her ten-year-old sister, street when O'Hanlon, going at the rate of twelve miles an hour, turned into the street from Ninth avenue without slowing down. Miss Bott threw her sister clear of the taxicab, but in doing so sacrificed chances."

Another chauffeur whom Mr. Turnbull will ask to have indicted for murder in the first degree is Joseph E. Grimes of 138 West 108th street, who was held by a jury before Coroner Shrady yesterday to be guilty of gross negligence in the killing of John O'Neill, 61 years old. of 431 East Fifteenth street, on Columbus at the carbon manner.

of 31 East Fitteenth street, on Columbus avenue in the early morning of July 31 last. The testimony in this case was that Grimes, who was driving a touring car containing two men, was going at the rate of fifty miles an hour when he struck O'Neill. The man was thrown in front of a street car and dragged more than a hundred feet.

Grimes did not stop, the men in the automobile having ordered him to continue. The Coroner committed him to the Tombs in default of $5,000 bail. John McDonough, the motorman of the street car, was blamed in part for the accident. He was held in $1,500 bail.

WHICH DIED FIRST?

the Answer Depends the Disposal of Adolphus Bennett's Estate.

The distribution of the estate of dolphus Bennett hinges on a question of priority of death, which was raised yesterday in an application for an accounting before Surrogate Ketcham in Brook-

Mary E. Bennett, died within a few hours died before he died the will, which he gate Ketcham agreed to this, but said the burden of proof was upon the con-

BULGE BETRAYED A MURDERER.

Slayer of a Man of 81 Caught Because of Gun in His Pocket.

at Loudonville, near Albany, on Tuesday, had. Fellici was born in Austria, near the

HAT BURNS IN THEATRE.

Woman Has Man Behind Arrested for Malicious Mischief.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 20.-T.J. Noblett, proprietor of a laundry, was arrested to-day on a warrant charging him with malicious mischief.

The complainant, Mrs. John McDonald, charged him with having touched a lighted match to a $10 ostrich plume on her hat in the Gaiety Theatre last night because she refused to remove the lid during the performance. Noblett admits lighting the match, but denies touching if to the plume.

Walstein Root Buried in Hamilton College Cemetery.

UTICA, Oct. 20.-Walstein Root, for several years a writer on THE SUN, was the Albany authorities

Lister Fellici, 19 years old, who mur-

Adolphus Bennett and his wife,

Mr. Turnbull says that the case is paral-

-Taxicab Company Won't Give Bail. John O'Hanlon of 526 Tenth avenue, STRICKEN JUST AFTER DINNER driver of the taxicab that killed Miss Elizabeth Bott of 454 West Seventeenth AND SOON EXPIRES.

street on October 1 at Ninth avenue and West Twenty-third street, was committed to the Tombs last night by Coroner He Was Postmaster at Washington and Had Been Assistant Secretary for Mckinley and Roosevelt-Had Mrs. Shrady after an inquest jury had declared Morris Ejected From White House. him guilty of homicide. Assistant District Attorney Robert Turnbull, who presented the evidence to the jury, said that he would ask the Grand Jury to indict

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.-Benjamin F. Barnes, postmaster of Washington, died to-night at the home of his father -in-law, Jacob Frech, where he had diaed. Mr. Barnes was stricken just el to that of William Darragh, the chaufafter the meal was finished and died at feur whlo is now in Sing Sing for killing 7:30 o'clock before a physician could Ingvaard Trimble, a thirteen-year-old

Mr. Barnes was born at Yarmouth, N. S. December 3, 1868. He went with his Katherine, were crossing Twenty-third parents to New Jersey and was educated there. His legal residence is Vineland, N. J. In 1887 he was appointed a clerk in the Post Office Department under competitive examination and served for several years as private secretary to her own life. The testimony of specta-tors was that the chauffeur gave no warn-ing and after running over Miss Bott put on full speed. department officials. George B. telyou, who had been a clerk in the Post Office Department and had known Mr. on full speed.

Among those who testified was George W. Callahan, 15 years old, of 434 West Twenty-third street, who was responsible for the arrest of O'Hanlon. Callahan jumped on the car and clung to the mudguard, in spite of O'Hanlon's efforts to shake him off, until the machine broke down at Seventy-second street and West End avenue, when the boy called a policeman. Callahan was rewarded with a medal for bravery by the National Highways Protective Society and a position in a bank was given him.

Coroner Shrady fixed O'Hanlon's bail at $5,000. Barnes well, appointed him to the position of stenographer at the White House in January, 1898. In July of that year he was appointed executive clerk on the White House staff and in 1900 President McKinley appointed him assistant secretary to the President. He was reappointed by President Roosevelt in 1902. In 1908 President Roosevelt appointed him postmaster at Washington.

Mr. Barnes was a graduate of the law Mr. Barnes was a graduate of the law department of Georgetown University and only this month was admitted to the bar of the District of Columbia. His widow was Miss Emily Frech of Washington. Mr. Barnes when serving as assistant secretary to the President acted as the President's representative in transmitting formal messages to the Senate and the House. He had a very wide acquaintance among public men. Coroner Shrady fixed O'Hanfon's bail at $5,000.

"But the defendant cannot furnish that amount," answered the lawyer who was representing the taxicab company. "He is a poor man."

"Won't the company furnish it for him?" inquired the Coroner.

"No, sir," replied the lawyer, "the company has lost too much money going on bonds for its employees. Only recently it paid $3,500 to the District Attorney on the forfeited bail bonds of men who ran away. It won't take any more chances."

among public men.
While assistant secretary to the President he came into some prominence in connection with the White House incident involving the arrest of Mrs. Minor Morris, a member of a prominent Iowa family who had resided in Washington for many years. Mrs. Morris had insisted on seeing President Roosevelt, and when told by Mr. Barnes that she would first be obliged to tell her business to him Mrs. Morris declared that she intended to remain at the executive office until she obtained a personal interview with Mr. Roosevelt. In the controversy which grew out of her arrest it was alleged that Mr. Barnes and the screaming woman was half carried and half dragged from the executive office building at the west side of the White House to the Treasury Depart-

the White House to the Treasury Department entrance at the east side, a distance of more than a city block. Mrs. Morris was released without trial.

Subsequently, when Mr. Barnes was nominated for the office of postmaster at Washington, the confirmation of the nomination was fought bitterly in the Senate on the ground that he had been responsible for the alleged indignities to Mrs. Morris. Senator Tillman used the occasion to make a bitter assault on President Roosevelt and succeeded in holding up the nomination for a long President Roosevelt and succeeded in holding up the nomination for a long time. President Roosevelt came to Mr. Barnes's defence with statements to show that the arrest of Mrs. Morris had been justified and that her own behavior was responsible for the manner in which she had been handled by the policemen. had been handled by the policemen.
The nomination of Mr. Barnes was confirmed ultimately.
Mr. Barnes was well known at Oyster of each other on February 3, 1908. If the husband died first the property will go to Mr. Barnes was well known at Oyster Bay, where he spent several summers during Mr. Roosevelt's term as President.

He accompanied President McKinley and President Roosevelt on speechmaking trips. At the White House he was regarded as a very efficient official and he made an excellent record during his term of service as postmaster at the heirs of his wife. If Mrs. Bennett made in her favor, is null and void and the property goes to his blood kin. The application for an accounting was made by Catherine Bennett, a sister of the made by Catherine Bennett, a sister of the testator. Under his will she inherits a part of his property, which Surrogate Ketcham said was hers no matter which of the two died first. Counsel for Mrs. Bennett's heirs opposed an accounting however, until after the question of priority of death had been decided. Surrogate with the country of death had been decided. term of service as postmaster at

WHAT TO DO WITH THE INDIANS.

minate Them or Make Them Citizens. LAKE MOHONK, Oct. 20.-R. G. Valentine. Commissioner of In ian Affairs, de-Until the matter of the distribution of livered an address at the Lake Mohonk the estate came up there was no question | conference for friends of the Indians and as to who died first. It was generally supposed that Mr. Bennett died of grief following the death of his wife. With the exception of the bequest to Catherine Bennett he had left his property to his make them into citizens. Whichever we family of farmers who at one time owned nearly all of the Bay Ridge waterfront. The farm was sold when that section began to develop. The Bennetts lived in the old family homestead on the Shore road near Seventy-eighth street. doing any more than, if the course of extermination were now to be decided on, would have any business to bungle that Our present course is, as a matter of fact, cross between extermination and citizenship If we would escape a disgrace greater than any which has attended this Indian business yet we must stop at the beginning of this twentieth century and dered John La Chappelle, 81 years old, on the farm of La Chappelle's son, Joseph. think clearly about the Indians and set ourselves resolutely to certain clean and was arrested early last night at Bayard high courses. The whole American people must do this thinking. No group, no section alone can do it effectively.

Primarily above all other things in dealing with these Indians. says Mr. Valentine, is their health, the prevention of disease. Liquor must be kept away from them and rations must be frankly and wisely administered to the sick and to the old. Second, they should be aught to speak the English language, to read, to write and to figure and to look people squarely in the eyes. Third, they should have industrial training.

"If it is possible," he said, "as I believe it is, to bring these three principles of health and schools and industries to the front the service will waken into full health and schools and industries to the front the service will waken into full consciousness and intelligence."

Dr. Elmer Ellsworth Brown. United States Commissioner of Education, was chosen president of the conference, and in accepting the office made a brief address on the work being done by the Department of Education among the Alaskan Indians.

Vice-President Sherman this evening told the audience that in the future the Government must deal with the Indian as an individual both as to land and money rather than with him as a member of a tribe.

Italian line, and speaks Austrian, Italian, Italian, Italian, Italian, German, Slavic and English. The police here believe that he knows something about a robbery on East Twenty-second street some time ago. He is held at Headquarters awaiting the pleasure of the Alpany authorities.

Dr. Albert K. Smiley, the host of the conference, in welcoming his guests this morning said when there would be no Indian problem the Indians would be separated and become a part of the communities in which they lived.

SILK ROBBERY REPEATED. Police Looking for Men Who Did an Almost Identical Job Six Years Ago. Burglars entered the silk store of David Klein at 205 Springfield avenue, Newark. early yesterday morning and stole silk and satin valued at $2,500

Entrance was effected by the same methods as when the store was robbed in November, 1903, and booty valued at the same vember, 1903, and booty valued at the same amount was stolen. Six men were arrested for that job and the plunder recovered. Samuel Bolin, one of the prisoners, who was sent to the reformatory but subsequently released, was apprehended for another theft in New Rochelle about a year ago and sentenced to nineteen years in Sing Sing. The police say that most of the others who were taken into custody with Bolin and got State prison and reformatory sentences have since been released, and inquiries are being made about them.

Yesterday morning's robbery was dis-made about them.

Yesterday morning's robbery was discovered by Klein when he opened for business after 7 o'clock. He found that 2,500 yards of silk worth about $2,000 and 500 yards of satin worth $500 were missing.

HE'S LOYAL TO MRS. STETSON. Overbury Explains His Letter Submitting to Admonition.

Arthur E. Overbury, the practitioner of the First Church of Christ Scientist of New York, whose letter submitting to the admonishment of the mother church in Boston contained the statement that after earnest self examination he was convinced that the local body "been laboring under a personal domination greatly to its detriment, has explained that his conclusions in no gusta Stetson. It was the "personal tise healing and the "admonishing" of seventeen practitioners. The charges made by the central body are now being investigated by a committee of inquiry appointed by the board of trustees of the local church. The board has so far dodged the question as to whether or not their action could as to whether or not their action could in any event result in severing relations between the First Church of Christ, Scientist, here and the parent body in Boston. Those who know Mrs. Stetson are of the opinion that she will not submit to being made an ordinary church member without office or power. By these persons it is said that the real issue is not a question of doctrine or practice, but of whether to support Mrs. Stetson or to remain loyal to the mother church.

Mr. Overbury does not take this posi-

Mr. Overbury does not take this position. He said yesterday that the points at issue were in no way concerned with particular persons, but that the question was an academic one. He could see no reason why his decision that the admonition of the mother church was a proper processed. nition of the mother church was a proper one should in any way affect his personal or church relations with Mrs. Stetson, who was his teacher in science. He declared that there were no partisans in the church and that everything which has been done was inspired by love. The people in Boston, he said, were full of love for those of the church in New York, and this love was returned in full measure.

Mr. Overbury's explanation of the

Mr. Overbury's explanation of the present trouble is that it is one of those crises which come to every religious body during periods of growth. He did not admit however that the word crisis was quite the proper one, since in his opinion no evil, only good, can come of the self examination of the local church. Mr. Overbury was very certain that the result of the investigation would greater unity throughout the wi

THE DIVERSIONS OF DOROTHY et Fox That Is Having Fun With Poultry and Even With the Hounds.

RED BANK, N. J., Oct. 20.-Dorothy, a pet fox belonging to Mrs. Fred Wilson of Fox Lodge, is having the time of her life and is rapidly becoming a red coated epicurean renegade. Dorothy escaped from her cage, where she was confined with two other young foxes caught by Rube White early in the spring. She chewed a hole in heavy wire netting and beat it to Byrum's woods between dark and daylight.

In the morning a truck farmer named stalking his prize winning barred Plymouth Rocks. The farmer's mother chased Dorothy away with a broom while Sickels was running for his gun. Dorothy came back that night, however, and carried two hens away. Some time during the twenty-four hours succeeding she took five quail out of a covey of fifteen which had been living near the agriculwhich had been living hear the agricultural experimental station grounds of Dr. Van Vleet on Prospect avenue. That night a pair of mallard ducks belonging to Mrs. Wilson, which had taken ribbons at the Red Bank fair were relieved of the presenting of prepopuling to grub cell in the Twice since then Dorothy has been seen skulking across Byrum's field, and half a dozen of the sporting citizens of Red Bank, Little Silver, Oceanic and Fairhaven have unkennelled their hounds and gone on the trail, but so far Dorothy has eluded them by taking refuge in a swamp back of the Polo Club grounds. Last Sunday eleven hounds and seven men were hunting her. They raised Dorothy once, but she was in view not more than a minute, and although the best hounds in the county ran for the rest of the day they failed to start her again.

Meanwhile fancy fowl of all kinds are disappearing from the neighboring roosts Twice since then Dorothy has been seen

It is possible to do only two things with the Indians—to exterminate them or to make them into citizens. Whichever we have should be done in the most business. The most business that she will lose a lot of her clever foot- and the manufacturers here were notiwork and fall an easy victim to the sea-soned dogs.

> COLGATE'S NEW PRESIDENT. Elmer Burritt Bryan Inaugurated as Head of the University.

HAMILTON, N. Y., Oct. 20.-Elmer

Delegates from other institutions included S. B. McCormick, chancellor of the University of Pittsburg; Prof. Charles Wagner, Oberlin; J. M. Taylor, president of Vassar; Presidents Seelye of Smith, Garfield of Williams, Gunnison of St. Lawrence, Crowell of Franklin, Fellows of the dealing with these Indians. says Mr. University of Maine, Rushmore of Swarthmore, Davis of Alfred, Harris of Bucknell, Sanford of Clark, W. S. Aldrich, director of Clarkson Technical: E. F. Nichois. President of Dartmouth; President Schurman of Cornell. Dean Purrington of Mount Holyoke, acting Dean Carpenter of Columbia, Prof. Spencer of Prince-ton, Chancellor Day of Syracuse, President Demarest of Rutgers, Dean Ripton of Union, President Rhees of Rochester, Dr. A. H. Strong of Rochester Theological Seminary, H. E. Fosdick of Union Theo-logical Seminary, Dr. Anderson and Dr. Brown, Newton; G. L. Stewart, president

Brown, Newton; G. L. Stewart, president of Auburn Theological Seminary; A. S. Whipple and Frank Rollins of the New York State Education Department.

The Rev. Dr. William Mangan Lawrence, president of the corporation, presented the keys and charter to the new president and President Stryker of Hamilton offered a congratulatory address in behalf of other institutions. The Rev. ton offered a congratulatory address in behalf of other institutions. The Rev. G. G. Johnson spoke for the Colgate alumni, Dr. William H. Crawshaw for the faculty and William X. Murray for the undergraduates. After President Bryan's address degrees After President Bryan's address degrees were conferred as follows:

LL D, George Mather Forbes of Rochester, James A. Woodborn of the University of Indiana, Frank Albert Fetter of Cornell and Frank Smalley, dean of the College of Liberal Arts, Syracuse University.

L. H. D., Albert Granger Harkness of Brown University and Herman Carl Brandt of Hamilton College.
Doctor of science, John M. Clark, State Geologist of New York and Frederick Carlos Ferry of Williams College.

Ice Case Jury Box Filled.

The ju ry in the case against the American Ice Company was completed late yesterday afternoon after the special panel of jurymen had been nearly ex-hausted. The jury was not sworn in. hausted. The jury was not sworn in, however, and there may yet be changes in the box to-day.

RATS KILLED BY SCIENCE

DANYSZ VIRUS

Glad to Get Off With 30 Years in Prison. July 10 last, was convicted to-day of murder in the second degree and sentenced hauffeur Puzzled About the Comb, Vell and Powder Puff-Machine Stopped None Too Soon-Bessie In for a Good Hard Licking at Home.

DEBRIS OF A NIGHT JOY RIDE

WRECKED AUTO AND SHREDS OF FEMININE BELONGINGS.

YONKERS, Oct. 20 .- A wrecked touring ar in which were found a woman's comb way alter his regard and love for Mrs Au- shreds of a veil, a powder puff and a handbag containing letters and effects thought domination" exercised by Mrs. Stetson to belong to Miss Catherine Heim of 265 over the local church that brought the West 146th street and Miss Bessie Goldrebuke from Boston and resulted in the stein of 18 East 120th street, Manhattan, revoking of Mrs. Stetson's right to prac- is lying half way down a steep embankment off Central avenue near Palmer avenue under police guard to-night.

The car was wrecked at midnight last night when, while going apparently at top speed, it jumped the embankment and crashed into an oak tree with such force as to split the tree. The tree prevented the automobile from pitching into a lot studded with rocks twenty-five feet below the street surface.

The point where the wreck occurred is an unfrequented region, and it was not until 10 o'clock this morning that the automobile was found by Mounted Policeman Herlihy. The number on the ma-chine was 77367, and the license bearing this number, the police ascertained, is held by William F. Tilton of 19 Summit avenue, Mount Vernon.

Mr. Tilton's chauffeur is Harry Rogers of Mount Vernon. Rogers said that he took the machine out last night with Mr Tilton's consent and that he and a friend, John Ramm of 413 West Fiftieth street, Manhattan, took a ride to Yonkers. Central avenue, which automobilists usually tral avenue, which automobilists usually pass over in speeding to and from the Gramatan Inn at Bronxville, is unlighted, and Rogers said he suddenly found the machine on the edge of the steep embankment. The next instant it plunged downward, but the tree into which it crashed barred its progress. Rogers said Ramm was hurled thirty feet but was not reconstruct to the control of t not rendered unconscious. Both escaped serious injury.

Rogers denied there were any women

Rogers denied there were any women in the party when the wreck occurred and said that the handbag must have been left by previous occupants of the car. He could not explain the presence, of the veil, powder puff and comb. There were tire tracks on the embankment as though a second auto had stopped to give the occupants of the wrecked car assistance.

In the handbag were a postal card addressed to Miss Catherine Heim and a letter signed by the same person and addressed to John Freidenheimer, care of the Hampton Hotel, Albany, to whom "love and kisses" were sent. Visiting Heim "love and kisses" were sent. Visiting cards with the name Miss Lillian Heim and two memorandum books in which the name "Miss Bessie Goldstein, 18 East 120th street" often appeared were found.

The police have not been able to establish communication with Mr. Tilton. They believe that two women were seri ously injured while on a joy ride and were removed to New York for treat-ment, no one having been treated in the ment, no one having been treated in the local hospitals.

The Tilton car, which was valued at $7,000, is a total wreck.

At Mr. Tilton's home it was said this evening that Rogers had been sent to New York to get the automobile, which had been undergoing repairs at a garage. It was expected that he would return with it direct to Mount Vernon. Mr. Tilton did not understand that there was to be a side trip with Manhattan friends over Yonkers way. Mr. Tilton claimed what was left of the machine to-day.

Miss Heim does not live at the ad-dress given. Bessie Goldsmith said last night that Catherine Heim was a friend of hers and that she also knew Rogers She would not say whether she was on the joy ride of the night before or not. Her father was interested in the story fied yesterday that the prices of the brush at this week's sales in Illinois and other Western States have gone as high as $202 a ton. The quotations in preceding years have ranged from $70 to $80. The common floor broom, which house keepers have bought for 25 cents or less before this fall, will soon be selling in Burritt Bryan was inaugurated to-day as president of Colgate University. The ceremonies took place in the First Baptist Church in the presence of representatives of many colleges and universities.

Delegates from other institutions in-

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 20 .- Robert Allen, who shot and killed Charles Mc-Laughlin, a horse dealer, in this city on to thirty years in the State prison. He was so well satisfied with the verdict that he shook hands with all the jurymen and thanked them.

Socialist Orator Could Have Forgiven

Capitalists if They'd Done It. Edward F. Cassidy, the Socialist candidate for Mayor, went into the financial district yesterday in the prosecution of his campaign and was made sport of by Centre street, Newark, a victim of coal a crowd of boys for almost an hour before the police could check the disorder. Mr. Cassidy and his party arrived at the was taken to the City Hospital, where abo luncheon hour and set up their little platform at Broad and Wall streets, on the corner where the Rev. William Williamson holds his meetings. It wasn't five minutes before the crowd of messenger boys and young clerks got too big for the two or three policemen in the neighborhood. three policemen in the neighborhood.

August Klenke of Buffalo was the first speaker. The crowd never gave him a chance. Every time he started to say something they drowned him out with catcalls and jeers and pressed in to push him off his box. Finally they began to throw things. A rotten apple grazed Mr. Cassidy's hat, a paper bag full of water splashed down at his feet and long festoons of ticker tape came sailing down upon the heads of the crowd.

But the Socialists held out till the reserves came down from the John street station, and once they got a hearing they held their audience.

held their audience.

Mr. Cassidy opened his speech by saying that he had spoken on street corners for many years, but had never in Hell's Kitchen or Cherry Hill encountered treatment as brutal or unfair.

"If capitalists were here themselves

"If capitalists were here themselves and had attempted to break up a Socialist meeting," he said, "I would not care so much about it, but when I see members of my own class, young men working for wages, trying to do that it makes me heartsick."

Edward Donohoe Dies From Auto Accident.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Edward Donohoe, cashier of the Donohoe-Kelly bank and one of the most prominent men in the business and club life of San Francisco, died to-day as the result of a fractured skull sustained in an automobile accident last Sunday night. He was an excellent reputation and seemed dethe son of one of the founders of the bank and was 39 years old.

WALL STREET BOYS MOB HIM. MAN DEAD; WOMAN HELPLESS. Strangers Victims of Coal Gas in a New-

Jacob

Knickerbocker

Beer

Every drop of water is filtered. Every drop of beer is sterilized. The result is a beer of absolute purity and

Bottled at the Brewery

FAMILIES SUPPLIED BY

RETAIL DEALERS

THIRD AVE., 90th to 92d St.

mail your order to our Bottling Departent, and we will see it is filled.

satisfying taste.

Dewitt E. Rogers, a grocer of Metuch in bed in a furnished room house at 26 gas, and a woman whom he introduce as his wife was found unconscious. She was revived. She refused to give her

According to printed cards found among the woman's effects by the police she is "Marie E. Franklin. 45 Franklin street." A Mrs. Riker, who lives at that address, said that a woman who went by that name had roomed in her house, but had name had roomed in her house, but had left three weeks ago, saying she was going to New York to live.

Mrs. Annie Haley, who keeps the furnished room house in which Rogers died, says that she went to call the couple about 9:30 o'clock this morning, and receiting no answer entered the room. She saw that Rogers was dead and turned her attentions to the woman. Dr. Frederick Mandeville of 940 Broad street was summoned and he worked over the woman.

summoned and he worked over the womanuntil an ambulance arrived.

Mrs. Haley told the police that Rogers and the woman, who he said was his wife, came to her house late on Tuesday night and said they had missed their train for Metuchen. She said she was sure that coal gas from a heating furnace in the cellar had affected the couple.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 20.—Dewitt C. Rogers was well to do and a member of a well known New Jersey family.
His wife was prostrated by the news of this death. He left home to go to the Newark market to buy produce for his grocery business yesterday afternoon.
Rogers had lived in Metuchen nearly all his life. He was a native of South River. He was graduated from Rutgers College in 1884 and was a member of the Board of Education of Metuchen and was a candidate on the Republican ticket for member of the Metuchen Borough Council at the coming election.

He was several times a member of the Middlesex county Grand Jury. He bore an excellent reputation and seemed devoted to his wife and his only child, a

Patent Colt Vamp $6

A Fall and Winter style of exceeding smartness. Flat tread, slightly extended sole and high Cuban heel are the features.

Hanan & Son

297 BROADWAY 1391 BROADWAY - corner 38th Street 1203 BROADWAY 1095 BROADWAY 390 Fulton Street (near Smith St.) - Brooklyn

St. Paul · Minneapolis

Chicago

St. Paul & Minneapolis Mait

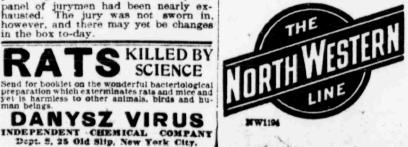

There is no finer train service between Chicago and the Twin Cities than that of The North Western Line.

The Best of Everything

For tickets and further information apply to

R. M. Johnson, General Agent C. & N. W. Ry. 461 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

The Badger State